Mahalo from a Waikiki Resident: "It's safe and clean and ready to visit here!"

Our team received a call just as the changes to Japan's travel restrictions were taking place, from a Japanese woman who lives in the district. To partially paraphrase, she thanked us for all of the work that we do. She went on to say that she has been taking pictures and sending them to her friends and family in Japan to let them know "it's safe and clean and ready to visit here". Voices like these in our Waikiki community speaks volumes!
